

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXIV.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1906.

NO. 53.

HUSTONVILLE.

Don't fail to attend the splendid services at the Baptist church this week. Frank North sold his farm on the Liberty pike, about 135 acres, to John Riffe at $49.

The graded school tax is now past due and the penalty goes on Oct. 1, so please call and settle.

The deposits in the Peoples Bank at the close of the second week's business amounted to $15,000.

Mack Elliott, mayor of Long Branch, has bought the George Hicks farm adjoining Olympian Springs, and will take possession at once.

Mr. George P. Crow and wife spent Sunday with friends in our city. A number of our citizens are taking in the Blue Grass Fair.

Miss Sudie Ellis is visiting Mrs. J. A. Blain. Misses Lucy Bowman and Lizzie Phillips, of Liberty, guests of Judge and Mrs. Wm. Myers, left to-day to attend the Blue Grass fair.

Rev. S. B. Lander's subject next Sunday morning: "Secret Faults." Presbytery will meet here Sept. 25th. The last service for the summer at McKinney will be held next Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

Mrs. Bettie Carpenter has sold her farm of 44 acres, one mile of our city on the Stanford pike, to Richard Bohon, of Wayne county. We are glad to welcome Mr. Bohon and his excellent family to our community.

Lutes & Co. shipped a car of heavy hogs to Cincinnati Monday, for which they paid 54c. D. C. Allen shipped a car of hogs and cattle to Cincinnati, for which he paid market prices. George Cunningham shipped a car of butcher cattle to Cincinnati, for which he paid from 2 to 34c.

Guests continue to tax the capacity of Olympian Springs and all are loud in their praise of the efficiency of its health giving waters. Rheumatism in the most malignant form succumbs to its baths, while almost every ailment to which flesh is heir, yields to its curative powers. A stock company capitalized at $20,000 is being agitated.

Miss Lena Edrington has returned from a two weeks' visit to friends at Lebanon. Masters Alva and Arthur Helm, of Lexington, are visiting their uncle, J. K. Helm. Miss Lena Barnett, of Stanford, is the guest of Mrs. W. G. Routen. Mr. and Mrs. William Stodgill, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McCormack and Mr. and Mrs. Frank North, are their guests.

The almost worthless stuff called "blue lime stone" by our county judge, is being put on the pikes of the West End in large quantities. This shale is not as good as slate for road purposes, but is more easily quarried and crushed and lasts here, where hauling is done, about as long as "Pat" stayed in the army. We tried it last fall on the Danville pike and know whereof we speak.

Some late acquisitions to our community are types of humanity entirely different from our open hearted, hospitable people, for which not only our locality, but the entire State is noted far and wide, and is proud of her notoriety. Accumulative evidence of their short-comings continue to crop out, showing in every instance a sad want of the proper observance of the golden rule: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," for all of which we are exceedingly sorry.

Wallace Hall left for Freeport, Ill., Saturday after a short vacation, during which he was notified by his superintendent of another promotion, which was very acceptable and well deserved. Miss Alice Cabbell is in Louisville this week attending the State Fair and catching on to the latest fads in fall fashions. Judge Myers returned Saturday from a week's labor in staves in Laurel, Clay and Jackson counties. Rev. G. W. Mills has returned from Casey, where he has been conducting a protracted meeting.

Some years past a few of the worst professional base ball players began a fad of making a "grand stand" play in order to hold their jobs. The same tactics were later resorted to by drivers and riders in horse racing, and later still by an inferior class of show people; but intelligent audiences soon "caught on" and giving them the deserved hiss, stopped it. Now we are confronted by the deplorable use of a grandstand play from the pulpit by a few of the weaker brothers, who, we hope will see their error like their predecessors, and profit thereby.

On Thursday evening last, the word went forth, "Let joy be unconfined" at the hospitable home of Squire Arch Frye, to which a number of his friends were summoned. The occasion was in celebration of the squire's 65th birthday and water melons galore were in evidence. The hostess called attention to the predominating colors of red and green in the spacious dining gallery, which she said was significant of the color of her hair and the squire's knowledge of up-to-date functions. Following is a list of the gallant bachelors and maids who attended this long-to-be-remembered feast: Prof. McVey, Judge Josh Swabe, Rev. S. B. Lander, S. D. Yowell, D. C. Allen, George Dinwiddie, W. S. Drye, George D. Weatherford, W. G. Cowan, A. B. C. Dinwiddie and Misses Kate Bogle, Sarah Curtis, Lou Hocker, Fannie Maginnis, Margaret Dunn, Josie Bosley, Lillie Goode, Belle Bogle, Bettie Logan, Lizzie Bogle, Cora Lipps, Ida French, Julia Stagg, Bessie Worthington, Anna Bell Wheeler, Lula Edrington, Katherine Alcorn, Arie Wright, Sudie Ellis, Alice Cabbell, Jennie Dunn, Mary Carpenter, Dr. Bertie Carpenter and Mrs. Sallie Shipman. Wm. Carpenter was the only bachelor invited who failed to show up and he was accordingly suspended from the order. Toastmaster J. D. Swope assumed the character of "Barkis", and announced his willingness to become a benedict, and since the avowed purpose of this B. & M. Club is to exchange the bachelor's hall for a home of connubial felicity, he is singing:

Darkest nights all have a morning,
Though the sky be overcast,
Longest lanes all have a turning
And the tide has changed at last.

THE BUCOLIC BARD.

Sing a song of falltime!
Leaves are turnin' red.
Guess this ain't the first fall
That 'ere has been said.
'Tis the rhymster's slogan
Every year, I vow,
They'll be sayin' that, sir,
Fifty years from now.
Sing a song of falltime!
Pumpkins on the ground,
Yaller, as is usual
When the fall comes 'round.
Squashes on the squash vine,
Apples on the bough;
Jest as they will be sir,
Fifty years from now.
Sing a song of falltime!
Corn a-standin' rank.
Farmers fat an' happy—
Money in the bank.
Times are good an' easy,
As you'll all allow,
Hope they'll be that way, sir,
Fifty years from now.

Pain from a Bruise Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

WHY FATHER WORKS.

Mother lounges at the club,
Willie motors—reckless club.
Teachers work on Polly's voice,
Art for Mary—that's her choice.
Susie thinks she'll write a book,
Wears a soulful, haunted look.
Gussie thinks that she will play
A piano some sweet day.
Baby has a nurse or two,
Must be French, or they won't do.
This is all the family 'cept
Father dear, and he is kept
On the jump to get the seeds
Needed for the others' fads.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." HARVEY HELM of Lincoln county.

THE battleship Connecticut, one of the largest of the sea monsters yet launched, is about to go into commission if the 700 men to officer and man it can be secured. Speaking of it a contemporary says: "These marine fortresses are the costliest toys of the empire builders. From the time of their outfit until they go to the scrap heap they are a continuous source of heavy expenditure. If a warship remains serviceable for 25 years the fact is deemed remarkable. Suppose the 700 men immured within the iron walls of the Connecticut, whose support is a common burden, were instead employed for the next 25 years in profitable production on shore what might they not add to the commonwealth?"

THE Pennsylvania capitol, which was to cost originally $4,000,000, has already cost $8,000,000, and the State Treasurer has just issued a statement that it will cost $10,000,000 before it is completed. That's the way they do in Republican States.

Murphy, head of the Tammany Democracy.

Following is the agreement signed by the candidates for U. S. Senator, anent the proposed debates: We have had a full and free conference concerning joint debates between us, and while both of us would be glad to jointly discuss the issues of the campaign, still a great number of the friends of each of us advise strongly against holding joint debates. Therefore, desiring harmony in the democratic party and yielding to the advice of our friends, we have agreed to abandon the joint debates, and each of us will prosecute his canvass in such a way as seems proper. Notice of Election!

Regular April term, 1906, Lincoln County Fiscal Court met pursuant to adjournment this April 4, 1906. Present Hon. E. C. Warren, Judge, presiding, with the following justices of the peace, to-wit: D. R. Adams, W. M. Dudderar and W. D. Wallin. It was moved by James W. M. Dudderar and seconded by Justice W. D. Wallin that the following action be taken by this court: The grand jury of Lincoln county, at the last term of the Lincoln circuit court, having recommended a new court-house for Lincoln county, and it appearing to the satisfaction of this court that the court-house now in use, is unsafe and inadequate for the public convenience and the preservation of the public records, it is ordered and adjudged, signed by the court, that the sum of $50,000 be appropriated to build a new court-house, and it is further ordered that an election be held, and a poll opened, at the general voting precincts in Lincoln county on the 6th day of November, 1906, the day of the next general election, at which the appropriation above suggested, shall be submitted to the legal voters of Lincoln county for their approval or rejection.

The sheriff of Lincoln county is directed to advertise said election for at least 30 days next before the day thereof, in the INTERIOR JOURNAL newspaper, being the only newspaper published in Lincoln county, and the officers of said election are directed to hold the election between the same hours as above suggested, shall be submitted to the legal voters of Lincoln county for their approval or rejection.

The clerk of the Lincoln county court shall cause to be printed on the official ballots, to be used in said election, the words and figures: "Are you in favor of an appropriation of $50,000 for building a new court-house, for Lincoln county?" and have two spaces, one the right of same, one for voters favoring the appropriation, to be designated by the word "Yes," and one for voters opposing the appropriation to be designated by the word "No," and said clerk shall prepare said ballot in all other respects as required by sec. 1426 of the Kentucky Statutes.

In the event that the requisite number of legal voters of Lincoln county vote in favor of said appropriation, it is ordered that the bonds of the bonds of Lincoln county to the amount of $50,000 to be prepared, executed and issued on printed forms under the seal of the county, to be signed by the presiding judge of the Lincoln county court and countersigned by the clerk of said court, payable to bearer at Lincoln County National Bank of Stanford, Ky., 30 years from the date of same with the option of paying same in 15 years from date, which bonds shall not bear a greater rate of interest than 4 per cent., payable semi-annually at Lincoln County National Bank, of Stanford, and interest coupons shall be attached to said bonds, signed by the clerk of the Lincoln county court. Said bonds shall be issued in denominations of $500. The ayes and nays were called on said motion and the same was passed unanimously, all of the justices voting for same, namely Justices D. R. Adams, W. M. Dudderar and W. D. Wallin, being a quorum of this body.

Summer Comfort and Cleanliness

The pores of the skin are responsible for most complexion troubles. Summer dust, the stain of vacation travel, combined with the grease of perspiration, clog and stifle the pores. Keep them clear and healthy, so that the natural oils may do their work of softening the skin.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

withdraws every particle of impurity from the pores—all the way through—and by gently exercising the facial muscles rounds them out to perfect development; blackheads and wrinkles immediately disappear, leaving nothing but the natural glow of health.

PLAIDS.

The show windows in New York are full of new, bright, pretty plaids. We have nice range of skirt patterns in plaids at $1.50 yard; shadow plaids at 50 and 75c; plaid gingham just the thing for waists, suits and petticoats at 10 and 12 1/2c. Plaid silks at 75c and $1.00.

CAMBRIC.

This very soft material so much used now instead of Percale comes in Red, Navy and Black, with white figures. Also white grounds with figures. Just the thing for house and school dresses. Price, 12 1/2c, 36-inch wide.

QUALITY & PRICE POWER.

We have tried to not overlook either of these trade bringing powers in the purchase of our Fall and Winter goods. The month just passed we have spent in receiving and placing in stock lots of new goods and each day brings more. It is none too early to buy the goods that have to be made up, so we mention in this space some of the new goods just placed on sale.

FLANNELETTES.

We are showing a fine range of patterns in Twill and Armure wear at 10c yard.

OUTING CLOTHS.

For comfortable Winter garments there is nothing to equal them. We have all grades 5c to 10c. One we call your attention to especially is a 10c outing in light stripes and checks at 8 1/2c. We bought a case of these which accounts for the low price.

BRAIDS.

We have the prettiest line of braids, white and colored, we have ever had. We have a new braid with an edge at 6 yards for 35c. See it.

MISS ANNA D. McROBERTS was kicked by her father's horse Sunday and painfully hurt. She went to catch the animal, which whirled and struck the pretty little girl in the small of the back. It is almost a miracle that she escaped fatal injuries.

LAUGHTER.—A clever comedy creation, enriched by a fine literary style, clear cut comedy and the clearly-marked drawing of individually interesting types of character, called "A Race for a Widow," comes to Walton's Opera House, Stanford. While this play is filled with genuine comedy from start to finish, it has a plot of considerable strength and the action of the play at times becomes dramatic. A splendid company has made this play a great success. Pete Baker, the famous comedian, is the star. See the play Sept. 25th.

RING lost. Initials "A. G." Leave at this office.

BADLY HURT.—Lewis and John Harris Rout, sons of Sam Rout, colored of this place, were badly hurt while at work in the L. & N. yards at Covington Saturday. An engine struck them, mangle John Harris' arm so badly that it had to be amputated, and internally injuring Lewis Rout. Both are in a critical condition.

FRANKFORT.—The writer had the pleasure of spending Saturday in Frankfort and visiting several of the many places of interest there. First he went to where the new Capitol is being built and saw hundreds of workmen busy on the immense structure. The stone masons and bricklayers are almost up to the second story with their work, which is said to be progressing finely. This feeble pen can give little idea of the magnificence of this great building, which when completed will have to be seen to be appreciated. The design is something after the order of the capitol at Washington and the prominence which will be given it by its commanding site will make every Kentuckian who looks upon it, proud of his State and the splendid management of its affairs which made a new Capitol possible. The writer could but think of the change of conditions a few years have brought about as he looked on the million-dollar building under construction. Six years ago when Gov. Beckham took hold of the reins of the government the treasury was depleted, the State in debt and things generally in a chaotic state. Ask yourself who is most responsible for and due the greatest credit for the remarkable change for the better in the State's affairs. We called at the executive building but found several of the State officials away, some speaking and others looking after the State's interest outside of Frankfort. It was a very quiet day on the "square," as the seat of government is sometimes called. An hour or so was spent in Frankfort's historic cemetery, where so many of Kentucky's illustrious sons sleep their last sleep. The little mound that marks the resting place of the lamented Goebel was of most interest to us. For six long years he has been buried there and yet no stone tells who lies under the sod, although the money for a handsome monument was contributed by thousands of friends and admirers some five years ago. What does the Goebel Monument Commission mean by its seeming carelessness of a duty it has been elected to perform? Eight other governors are buried in this beautiful city of the dead, five U. S. Senators rest there and one vice-president sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. A large monument marks the graves of Daniel and Rebecca Boone. The remains were brought to Kentucky from Missouri in 1845 and in 1862 the Legislature made provision for the monument, which has been greatly defaced by seekers after curios. Joel T. Hart, Theodore O'Hara, Henry Clay, Jr., son of the great "Commoner," Henry T. Stanton, who wrote the "Moneyless Man" and many other famous Kentuckians lie under the sod of this beautiful cemetery. The State monument, 65 feet high and built at a cost of $20,000, is an exceedingly handsome piece of work. Over 8,000 people have been buried in the Frankfort cemetery, which contains 83 acres and which overlooks the busy city of Frankfort. A drive to the Feeble Minded Institute showed that institution crowded with the State's unfortunates, there being about 260 inmates. The grounds are large and beautifully kept but the building is inadequate to the demands of the present. It is a sad place to visit. For instance, one grown man, old enough to be the head of a family, was seen riding a stick horse and seemingly getting as much pleasure out of it as a boy of five. Some of the inmates are said to be so bereft of reason that it is absolutely necessary for the attendants to feed them like they would babies to keep them from starving. After seeing these, there was no desire to visit the penitentiary, where nearly 1,500 men, women and children are paying the penalty of their crimes. Frankfort is quite a manufacturing center and a great deal of business of all kinds is done there. It has almost as many miles of street railway as Lexington and the car service is just as good. In fine, what we once referred to as "a hole in the ground" is rapidly forging to the front and is destined to make a city of some importance at no distant day.

DON'T forget the great picnic at Jones & Kelsay's Oak Grove Park, near Yosemite, Saturday. If you want to have fun by the bushel you should go by all means.

MR. YOUNGS
LETTER
E. W. ROSE MEDICINE CO., St. Louis, Mo. STONEFORT, ILL., April 3, 1905.
Dear Sirs:—It is a source of pleasure for me to permit you to use my picture before and after cured by "ZEMO," and to tell what "ZEMO" did for me. I doctored this case of (Acne) pimples for six years and spent several hundred dollars with physicians and specialists. The more salves and creams I used, the worse my face became. Mr. Ira Blackman recommended "ZEMO." Eight bottles entirely cured me, and I honestly believe
"ZEMO" is the best remedy in the world for any skin disease. Yours very truly,
